The deduction shall in each instance be of such an amount of monthly dues as is certified from time to time by this Union. The individual authorizations shall be irrevocable for the duration of this Agreement. All monies so deducted by the College shall be transmitted to a person designated by the Union before the tenth day of the month following that in which such deductions are made. The President of the Union shall furnish the College with a certificate showing the name and address of the duly authorized official of the Union to whom such money shall be transmitted.

ARTICLE 4 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The parties agree that the operation of the College, including the supervision of the employees and of their work, is the right of the College. Accordingly, subject to the provisions of the Agreement, the making of rules to assure orderly and effective work, the determination of what duties will be performed and of employee competency, the hiring, transfer, promotion, demotion, layoff or discharge of employees for just cause, and the right to discuss terms and conditions of employment directly with employees and to inform them directly concerning employment matters, and the right to continue the assignment of overtime as needed in accordance with Article 6, Section 2 A are rights reserved by the College.

The parties also agree that the College retains the right to transfer or sub-contract work covered by this Agreement, or to employ students of the College who have a need for financial assistance subject only to the limitation that no existing members of Local 200 United shall be discharged by reason of such transfer or sub-contracting work or employment of needy students.

Attention is directed to Appendix 13 concerning provisions for job security and additional agreements concerning sub-contracting.

ARTICLE 5 NONDISCRIMINATION

It is agreed by the Union and the College that neither shall discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment or against any applicant for membership in the Union because of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, marital status, parental status, or sexual orientation or because of his or her activities in the Union as provided by law.

ARTICLE 6 SENIORITY

Section 1.

A The College recognizes the seniority principle as applicable to the employees covered by this Agreement. For purposes of promotion, transfer, vacation time or other days off, and intersession employment, seniority will be considered in the following order:

1. Job classification
2. Department
3. College-wide master list, determined by the individuals' hiring date.

The College will give preference to the employees having the greatest length of service in that order where applicable provided that the College may give reasonable consideration to the qualifications of employees, including ability, training, skill, competency and other relevant qualities for particular purposes. When skill and ability are relatively equal, then seniority in the prescribed order shall apply. The College shall be the sole judge of an individual's skill and ability.

Any disagreement with the judgment may be treated as a grievance and handled in accordance with Article 7, of this Agreement.

For the purpose of layoff and rehiring, seniority for full-time employees will be determined by the individual hiring date. The seniority of a regular part-time employee will be calculated as a percentage of a full-time equivalent. For example, a part-time employee who is regularly scheduled to work 22 hours per week would earn .55 years of seniority for each year.

A separate seniority list for regular full-time employees and regular part-time employees shall be maintained by the College and made available to the Union upon request.

For the purpose of promotions or transfers into a full-time position, the College will give preference to regular full-time employees who apply for the position before regular part-time employees.

For the purpose of promotions or transfers into a part-time position, the College will give preference to regular part-time employees who apply for the position before regular full-time employees.

A single list for the entire personnel, subject to this Agreement, shall govern in matters. which do not pertain directly to rights within a department. The College agrees that loss of time due to sickness or accident shall not be construed to impair the seniority rights of the employees involved.

(b) Seniority rights shall terminate if any employee:

1. quits or retires;
2. is discharged for cause;
3. fails to return to work from an approved leave of absence;
4. fails to give notice of acceptance of recall within three working days and to report for work within five working days after notice or recall by the College, unless such failure is due to illness of the employee evidenced by a doctor's certificate;
5. is absent for four consecutive working days without notifying the College, unless due to an illness of the full-time employee which is evidenced by medical verification which prevents the employee from notifying the employer of his or her absence.

When two or more unit members are tied for seniority purposes, the College shall determine seniority in accordance with each unit member's month and day of birth. For example, if there are three unit members tied for seniority and the first unit member's birthday is September 15th, the second unit member's birthday is March 31st, and the third unit member's birthday is December 1st, for purposes of determining seniority unit member two with the birthday of March 31st would be considered most senior. unit member one with the birthday of September 15th would be second most senior, and unit member three with the birthday of December 1st would be least senior among the three.

In the event that unit members who are tied for seniority have the same birthday, a coin flip shall be used to break the tie.

Section 2.

- (a) Each department shall maintain and post a current seniority list of all Union members. Overtime shall be distributed on a rotating basis in accordance with seniority as follows:

For the purpose of offering overtime in a full-time position, the opportunity will first be offered to full-time employees in the affected title. If no full-time employee in the affected title accepts, then the opportunity will be offered to full-time employees in the affected department, provided the employee is qualified to perform the work. If no full-time employee in the affected department accepts, then the opportunity will be offered to regular part-time employees in the affected title. If no part-time employee in the affected title accepts, then the opportunity will be offered to regular part-time employees in the affected department, provided the employee is qualified to perform the work.

For the purpose of offering overtime in a part-time position, the opportunity will first be offered to part-time employees in the affected title. If no part-time employee in the affected title accepts, then the opportunity will be offered to part-time employees in the affected department.

provided the employee is qualified to perform the work.

In the event that a mistake is made with respect to the awarding of overtime, then the following procedure shall be followed:

I. For the first three incidents during a fiscal year that supervisors (as a group) inadvertently skip over unit members in the ACDC for overtime opportunities, each affected unit member shall be offered the next available overtime opportunity that is equal to or greater than the number of hours that were offered in the missed opportunity. For any incident beyond three in ACDC during a fiscal year that supervisors (as a group) inadvertently skip over unit member(s), the unit member(s) who is inadvertently skipped on the fourth occasion and beyond in a fiscal year shall be paid his/her overtime rate pursuant to Article 19 for the number of hours that were offered in the missed overtime opportunity.

(b) The mailing by certified mail, with return receipt of a written notice by the College to an employee at the latest address as shown on the College records, shall constitute "recall" by the College. The time of four working days and five working days shall begin on the day of receiving of the certified mail as evidenced by the return receipt. It will be the responsibility of each employee to keep the College informed as to his/her proper address.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCES, CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION

(a) The representatives of both the College and the Union shall be responsible for making prompt, and earnest efforts to adjust grievances arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the terms of this Agreement. During this probationary period, the College shall retain the right to transfer the employee back to his/her former job classification as if he/she had never left the original position.

Employee performance will be evaluated monthly by the immediate supervisor throughout the probationary period. The probationary status may be ended and regular status granted with the approval of the employing department and the appropriate senior officer of the College,
